

New Country Director Begins Post with CARE West Bank and Gaza

4 January 2007. Martha Myers will assume her new post on 14 January 2008, as the new Country Director with CARE West Bank and Gaza. Martha is an international development professional, with three decades practical experience in management, project design, planning, and implementation. Martha has several publications, including articles on the socio-economic impact of the Oslo Agreement on the lives of Palestinians in Gaza, portraits of Palestinian women, and basic education in the occupied Palestinian territories.

Martha Myers

Martha comes to CARE West Bank and Gaza, from the post of Regional Middle East Democracy and Governance Advisor, with USAID in Cairo. Before that she led the Malawi Threshold Country effort, with responsibilities in project development, strategy, planning, and donor coordination.

Martha has long experience in the West Bank and Gaza. She was the Senior Program Officer with AMIDEAST in Jerusalem, and has worked and conducted research with Palestinian NGOs.

Martha speaks Arabic and English.

For Media Interviews With Martha Myers, Please Contact:
George Sahhar, Communications and Documentation Specialist, CARE West Bank and Gaza (sahhar@carewbg.org)